MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

On September 14, 2009, Andrew Daniels, pro se, filed a complaint against the Lorain County Sheriff, among others, for alleged constitutional violations arising out of a motor vehicle accident [dkt. 1]. The case was referred to Magistrate Judge Baughman for pretrial supervision, including a Report and Recommendation (R&R) for disposition of case-dispositive motions [dkt. 17]. On January 15, 2010 an R&R was filed, recommending that the court grant the Lorain County defendants summary judgment and decline supplemental jurisdiction over any possible state law claims [dkt. 28].

Daniels has filed his objections to the R&R [dkt. 30] and the defendants have filed their response [dkt. 31]. Daniels's objections are merely conclusory restatements of arguments that he made before the magistrate judge. Nonetheless, this court has reviewed the objections de novo, and finds them to be without merit. Accordingly, this court adopts the R&R in its entirety and grants summary judgment for the Lorain County defendants with respect to claims asserted under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 15 U.S.C. § 1681. The court also dismisses, without prejudice, any claims that may be construed as state law claims.

This order is final and appealable.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
